THE GLORY FIELD

Internal vs. External Conflict

Internal Conflict: A struggle that takes place in a character's mind. For example, a character may have to decide between right and wrong or between two solutions to a problem. Sometimes, a character must deal with his or her own mixed feelings or emotions.

External Conflict: A struggle between a character and an outside force. The outside force may be another character. It may be the character and the community or it could be something physical like a force of nature. (Example: a storm).

Physical Journey: Where the character has traveled or moved to and from.

Emotional Journey: How the character has developed emotionally. What struggles they have had to overcome, what they have learned, and how they have changed because of their experiences.
