

Where Am I From

Where am I from you ask
I wish I knew that myself
The truth is I don't know
Was I from long walks on the beach?
Or basketball on the court

Am I from the heart of Africa?
Or the soul of Europe
Have I lived for a lifetime?
Or have I died a thousand times over
Did I have the courage of a lion?
Or the spine of a coward

Was I from playing with friends?
Or alone by myself
Was I the most influential person on the planet?
Or was I the bum on the sidewalk
Was I a proud patriot?
Or did I follow General Lee

Where am I from
I think about it everyday
The truth is I don't care anymore
The only thing that matters now
Is where will I go?
