

Where I am from

I am from dishwashing liquid and sponges. I am from loud music in a small room. (The beat is so loud the room vibrates.) I am from counting money after a pay check.

I am from pie eating with family every Sunday. I am from treating people like you would like to be treated. I am from amusement park rides in the nice summer weather. I am from chicken eating with a side of mashed potatoes and gravy.

I am from going to sleep after along day and begging mama for five more minutes of rest. I am from mall shopping, movie watching and having fun with my friends each and everyday.

I am from grandma's cooking just for four, but believe me when she's done there will be way more then four banging at her door. I am from a respectful and strong family.

That's where I am from!
